

EMPLOYER FEEDBACK FORM

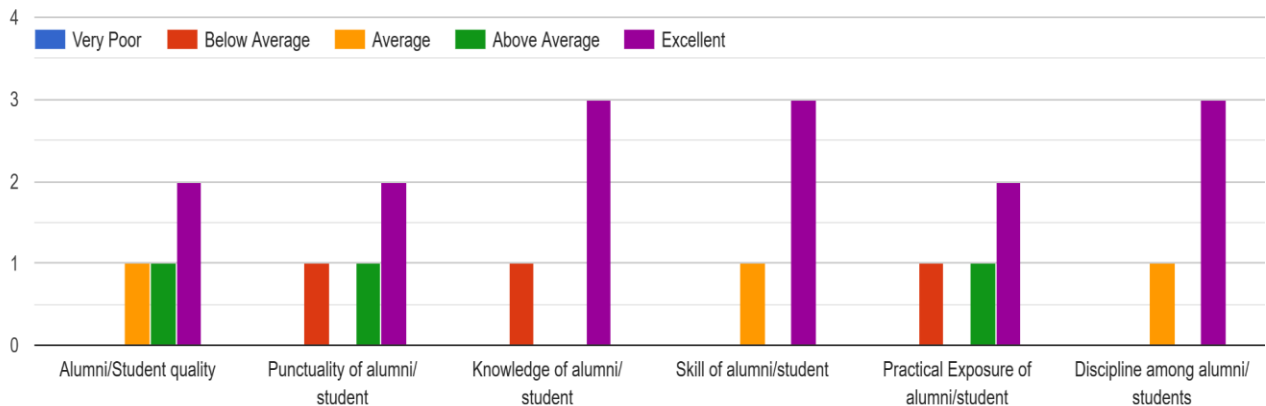

Employers are also satisfied with the University. They appreciate the fact that the university produces graduates who are well-educated and have the skills and knowledge they need to be successful in the workplace. However, some employers have expressed concerns about the lack of on-campus networking opportunities and the difficulty of assessing the quality of online courses.

Designation

4 responses

The feedback received are generally from the Assistant Teacher followed by the Associate Professor and Computer Operator Grade B.

Employer are satisfied by the alumni /student quality, their punctuality and knowledge as well as their skills and practical exposures, along with discipline among them. Employers are generally impressed by the knowledge and skills of the alumni/student

However, the data suggests that there are some areas where students and alumni can learn from each other. For example, students can learn from alumni about the importance of punctuality, knowledge, and discipline. Alumni can learn from students about the importance of practical exposure.